Decision of the Collector of Madura

Appellants	V.	Respondents
1. Auga Tévan	1st Deft.	1 Nagalinga Servai
2. Máyandi alias Erula Tévan &	2nd Do.	2. Muttusami Do. (1st & 2nd Pltffs)
3. Mutukurpa Tévan	3rd Do.

29.

This is an appeal from the decision of the Head Assistant Collector awarding to the Plaintiff under Regulation VI of 1831 the Karam Ambalam Mirasi of the Village of Kérampándi in the Kámankótta Tálug of the Rámnad Zemindari and two years produce of the same.

Both parties claim to be grandsons of Minákchi Sundaram Servai the Iysal Ambalgar of the Village and to derive their right to the contested office from him. Mr Cockerel adverts to the caste of the claimants and the title of the Iysal Ambalam "Servai" being that ordinarily given to Akambadians of which class the Plaintiff Plaintiff is, and not usually assumed by Maravars, to which caste the Defendants belong. The Defendants in appeal argue that this title is assigned to Maravars Konars and Kullers as well as to Akambadiars. This may be admitted, and yet it does not appear to hom me to affect the reasoning of the Head Assistant. It is very seldom used by other castes except the Akambadiar, and when used is taken as a honorary title which would be retained with great reverence by the descendants especially by those nearones of grandsons. but here we have the Defendants with the usual cognomen of Tévén.

The Appellants also object to the inference, (and a very strong and clear one, it is) drawn by the Head Assistant Collr. from the Punchayet decision Document No. 22. It is this of this punchayet the 1st & 2nd Defendants

Defendants were members - The punchayet was called to settle a boundary dispute between the Village of Nagaramangalam and the Village of Kirambandi the Mirasi office of which is now in dispute - had these Defendants been at the time, as they declare, Ambalgars of the Village of Kirambandi they would not have been convoked to the punchayet - The appellants have denied the calling of the punchayet and that Ramaswami was ~~not~~ alive at the time, ~~nor~~ that he [illegible] to make the oath - There is no occasion to question the decision, and after a careful consideration of all the proceedings in the case and the appeal Petition I see no reason for dissenting from the conclusion of the Head Assistant Collr or for disturbing his decision which appears to me to be borne out by the record and to be consistent with justice

The Deputy Collr shall always proceed to apply copies of their decisions in cases in which such may be affected & concerned.

Is it true that in the village in question the head village where a Brahmin is called "Nattamgar" not "Ambalam" which is declared applicable under Section 4 of [illegible] with the proportion of the Collr [illegible] the account in [illegible] & were they concerned with Maniam & Stanikam in virtue of the decision prepared of the [illegible] the [illegible] shall be allowed to appear a candidate equally with the other head of the village for the vacant office of Curnum which shall be bestowed on the fittest man among them.

It must be understood that the office of Curnum is not hereditary, it is elective. The decision rests with the Revenue officer
